Harry Bertoia

Italian sculptor, university lecturer and furniture designer Harry Bertoia showed a stroke of genius with his patented Bertoia Collection for Knoll in 1952. An inventor of form, who explored new boundaries for furniture, Bertoia turned industrial rods into a design icon.

Sculpteur d'origine italienne, designer de mobilier et maître de conférences, Harry Bertoia fit preuve de génie en créant la célèbre fauteuil Diamant pour Knoll International en 1952. Bertoia fut un véritable inventeur de formes et il enrichit le design mobilier d'un nouveau matériau, les tiges d'acier qu'il transforma en icônes du design.

Italiano di nascita, scultore, docente universitario e designer di arredi, Harry Bertoia ha espresso tutto il suo genio creativo nel 1952 realizzando per Knoll la sua celebre poltrona Diamond. Bertoia ha inventato nuove forme e ha arricchito il design di arredi trasformando le barre d'acciaio in icone.

Der Diamond Stuhl, den der italienische Bildhauer, Universitätsdozent und Möbeldesigner Harry Bertoia 1952 für Knoll entwarf, war ein wahrer Geniestreich. Bertoia war Erfinder von Formen und bereicherte das Möbeldesign durch die Einführung eines neuen Materials: Er wandelte industriellen Walzdraht zu einer Designikone.

Sculptural, airy and breathtaking in shape and form, the Asymmetric Chaise is considered to be a masterpiece of mid-century design.

Sculpturale, aérienne et spectaculaire, la chaise longue Asymétrique est considérée comme un chef d'oeuvre du mobilier du milieu du 20ème siècle.

Grazie alla sua forma leggera e scultorea, la poltrona Asimmetrica è considerata uno dei capolavori del design moderno.

Wegen seiner skulpturellen, luftigen und atemberaubender Gestaltung der Form gilt der Asymmetrische Liegesessel als Meisterstück des Möbeldesigns der Jahrhundertmitte.

Richard Schultz

Richard Schultz worked with Harry Bertoia during the development of Bertoia's iconic collection of wire chairs. Some years later, Florence Knoll specifically asked Schultz to create a collection of furniture that could be used outdoors. The result was the "Leisure Collection" (now sold as the "1966 Collection") which became an instant classic.

Richard Schultz a travaillé avec Harry Bertoia au développement de la célèbre collection Bertoia en tiges d'acier. Quelques années plus tard, Florence Knoll demanda à Richard Schultz de créer une collection de mobilier d'extérieur résistant aux intempéries. Le résultat fut la « Leisure Collection » (maintenant appelée la Collection 1966), qui s'imposa immédiatement comme un grand classique.

Richard Schultz collaborò con Harry Bertoia nello sviluppo della collezione iconica di sedute in filo di acciaio. Alcuni anni più tardi, Florence Knoll chiese espressamente a Schultz di creare una collezione di arredi per esterno che potesse resistere all'aria aperta. Nacque così la "Collezione Leisure", ora conosciuta come "Collezione 1966", che divenne subito un classico di design.

Mit Harry Bertoia zusammen arbeitete Richard Schultz am Design von Bertoias wegweisender Kollektion an Stühlen aus Drahtgeflecht. Florence Knoll trat einige Jahre darauf mit einem spezifischen Wunsch an Richard Schultz heran: Er sollte eine Kollektion an Möbeln entwerfen, die im Freien auch salziger Seeluft standhalten konnten, die "1966 Kollektion".

Eero Saarinen

Saarinen's work for Knoll, which includes the revolutionary 1957 series of Tulip Chairs and Pedestal Tables, has resulted in designs that have become major icons of the post war era. In his purist approach to architecture and interior design, Eero Saarinen sought the essential idea and reduced it to the most effective structural solution within an overall unity of design. In his Pedestal Table Collection, which includes dining, coffee and side tables, Saarinen realised his ideal of formal unity.

Le travail qu'Eero Saarinen effectua pour Knoll avec, en particulier, en 1957, la révolutionnaire série de chaises et de tables Tulip offrit à la période d'après guerre des créations devenues des icônes du design. Dans son approche épurée de l'architecture et de l'aménagement intérieur, Eero Saarinen recherchait l'essentiel, proposant une solution structurelle la plus efficace possible dans un design global. Avec sa remarquable collection Tulip sur piètement central, Saarinen atteint son idéal d'unité formelle.

Gli arredi realizzati da Saarinen per Knoll, che includono la famosa e rivoluzionaria collezione Tulip del 1957, sono considerati tra le maggiori icone del design del dopoguerra. Nel suo approccio all'architettura e al design di arredo, Eero Saarinen unisce l'essenziale a soluzioni d'effetto. Nella sua collezione di arredi con gambe a "calice", che include tavoli bassi e da pranzo, realizza il suo ideale di unità formale.

Saarinen's Arbeit für Knoll enthält die revolutionäre Serie der Tulpenstühle und Mittelfuß-Tische von 1957, die sich zu den wichtigsten Ikonen der Nachkriegszeit entwickelt haben. In seinem puristischen Ansatz für Architektur und Innenarchitektur, suchte Eero Saarinen den wesentlichen Gedanken und reduziert auf die effektivste strukturelle Lösung im Rahmen eines Gesamtkonzeptes vom Design. In seiner Pedestal Table Collection, die Ess-, Kaffee- und Beistelltische enthält, realisierte Saarinen sein Ideal der formalen Einheit.
