Through decades of experience and accumulated knowledge, we understand that one planning model rarely provides a solution for the whole office. AutoStrada synthesizes 40 years of Knoll's best ideas to deliver a comprehensive, architectural system that accommodates the full spectrum of your company's workspace needs. Designed with four planning modes — spine-based, storage-based, wall-based, and table-based — AutoStrada offers an aesthetically consistent design solution for the entire workplace. So whether you require a high-performance open plan system, architectural case goods, progressive private office furniture or a collaborative "big table" concept — or a mix of all four — AutoStrada is the answer.
