MX-Base Tables

Imaginative in form, function and materials, Islands, designed by Dan Grabowski, shapes the conversation and supports work in a variety of spaces. Islands includes a range of table styles for use throughout the workplace, including meeting and conference tables as well as side, coffee, dining and café tables.

Defined by an elegant fluted column base that support groups from small to large and discreetly manages cables through the center column or using convenient clips, MX-Base tables are available in eight shapes, six heights and three edge profiles.
