Antenna Workspaces

Desktop Screens

Antenna Desktop Screens are a collection of modern, universal privacy screens that define personal space. Available in a range of materials and colors, Antenna Desktop Screens seamlessly integrate with the broad range of Antenna Workspaces products.

- A Desk Screens provide privacy along the back edge of the desk and offer a choice in privacy and modesty height
- B End Screens can be used along an aisle to minimize distractions or together with Desk Screens to create personalized boundaries
- C Intermediate Screens are an easy addition that provide separation between side-to-side users in benching layouts
- D Antenna Desktop Screens can be added to most Knoll and non-Knoll desks, including height-adjustable tables
